

So you want to read a story?

An exciting new training opportunity exploring read aloud techniques and strategies for presenting books to children

This highly acclaimed workshop introduces Storysacks, an exciting literacy concept that has received national and international recognition.

The creator of Storysack, Neil Griffiths is now available to offer 1/2 day practical workshops worldwide. These highly informative and entertaining sessions are suitable for schools, pre-schools, adult and family literacy groups, nurseries, libraries, children's charities, health groups, social services, volunteer organisations and many others.

I will never share a story with children in the same way again!

This will be a training experience to remember!

- re-examine the role of storytime
- outline effective reading programmes

These workshops:

- examine the contents of a Storysack
- explore the contribution that Storysacks can make to literacy at home and in schools
- examine read aloud techniques
- explore book sharing activities
- review the role of parents in supporting reading at home

This is simply the best training session I have ever attended!
