training opportunity

Read All About It!

An exciting new cost effective training opportunity for schools, examining the crucial role of adults as motivators and role-models for reading.

Neil Griffiths, internationally acclaimed speaker, children's author and creator of Storysack® is offering a comprehensive half-day series of 3 workshops for children, parents, the wider community and staff.

Session One (1hr): highly interactive storytelling for the whole school.

Session Two (1hr prior to collecting their children at the end of the day): workshop for parents exploring storytelling techniques and supporting reading at home. (Crèche must be provided)

Session Three (1½ hrs twilight): Staff training (other schools may be invited) examining read aloud techniques, book sharing activities and re-examining the role of storytime.

This training has been enthusiastically received across the world and described as "Not to be missed", "The best money we have ever spent", "The best training I have ever attended".
